

Headteacher Newsletter 1

Week Commencing: Monday 27th February

Value of the Month: Love

Church

Thank you to those who attended Church yesterday for Rev Ruth Crossley's first service. The children sang beautifully and received lots of positive feedback. Thanks also to Katie Thompson and Charlie Beckwith for accompanying me to the Licensing of our new Reverend at St Marys on Tuesday evening.

Sports for Champions

What a fantastic write up in the NWEM! The children thoroughly enjoyed the visit from Beverley Jones who was truly inspirational! A final reminder to send in any outstanding sponsor money. Thank you.

Star of the Week

Dolphin – Theo Zaboklicki
Whale Class – Jamie Keith
Shark Class – Katie Thompson

Well done children!
Remember to hand your jumpers in on Friday to be washed.

Extra-Curricular Clubs

The new clubs will begin this week and run until Easter. If you haven't already done so, please bring in completed forms. A reminder that children will be brought out of the hall doors.

WOM (3.3.17)

Our February Worker of the Month assembly will be held on Friday 3rd March at the earlier time of 2:30pm in the school hall. During this assembly we will also be sharing songs from Young Voices and a small collection of gymnastic routines. All welcome to share in this celebration.

Science Week (13.3.17)

Shrove Tuesday (28.2.17)

As always, we will be preparing a special lunch of Stilton cheese, a regional delicacy, to be served with the following science activities and visitors to school. Rev Crossley will be joining us for this. Miss Ritchie will also be making pancakes with after school club too!
